ARLINGTON - DEVON

EX31 4SW

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A rare opportunity to acquire a three-bedroom detached non-traditional bungalow set within approximately 5.21 acres (2.10 hectares) of beautifully diverse gardens and grounds, offering a true haven for wildlife in a peaceful rural setting.

The property is surrounded by an exceptional variety of established planting, including formal garden, meadow, woodland, orchard, and a wildlife pond, creating a unique and ever-changing natural environment. The grounds feature a wide range of mature trees, flowering plants, and productive areas including an allotment with polytunnel, and extensive forest garden, together providing apples, cherries, damsons, and a variety of soft fruit.

In addition, the property benefits from well-maintained equestrian fields and a detached barn, which may offer potential for conversion, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions, providing excellent scope for a range of uses.

The native woodland, planted in 2009 as part of the UK Tree O'clock project and extended a few years later, together with the meadow copse - known as Harvey's Wood, provides a rich habitat for wildlife.

The pond area, within the forest garden, supports aquatic planting and attracts dragonflies, frogs, and newts, while the wider grounds are regularly visited by a variety of birdlife including woodpeckers, nuthatches, and wrens, alongside butterflies, bees, and hedgehogs.

Enjoying a private and tranquil position with only a handful of neighbouring properties, the setting offers outstanding countryside views and a real sense of seclusion. Despite its peaceful location, the property is well placed for local amenities, including the award-winning Besshill Farm Shop, Wistlandpound Reservoir on the edge of Exmoor National Park, and the 2,700-acre Arlington Estate with extensive walking routes and abundant including red deer. Wildlife.

A unique lifestyle property combining comfortable living with exceptional outdoor space, ideal for those seeking privacy, nature, and a connection to the countryside.

THE AREA

This property enjoys a private and tranquil rural setting, with only a couple of neighbouring properties. Nearby is the award-winning Besshill Farm Shop, along with Wistlandpound Reservoir, located on the edge of Exmoor National Park. The nearby Calvert Trust also offers access to leisure facilities, including a swimming pool and jacuzzi. Just a 6-minute drive away is the 2,700-acre Arlington Estate, offering around 20 miles of footpaths and abundant wildlife — with red deer frequently seen grazing in the fields opposite. The property benefits from beautiful, unspoilt countryside views and a wonderfully peaceful atmosphere.

The village of East Down, less than a 10-minute drive away, is home to the highly regarded Pyne Arms public house and restaurant. Nearby, Kentisbury Grange offers an award-winning, brasserie-style dining experience. Exmoor National Park is also close by, renowned for its rolling moorland, wooded combes, and rivers flowing to a dramatic coastline, providing excellent opportunities for walking, shooting, and fishing.

The North Devon coastline, recently designated a World Surfing Reserve, is easily accessible. The coastal village of Combe Martin is approximately 8 miles away, with the sandy beaches of Woolacombe, Putsborough, and Croyde all within around a 30-minute drive.

The regional centre of Barnstaple lies approximately 20 minutes away, offering a wide range of business, leisure, and shopping facilities.

The area is well connected via Junction 27 of the M5 motorway and the A361 North Devon Link Road. The nearest train station is at Barnstaple, providing services to Exeter and onward connections to London. Alternatively, Tiverton Parkway (just under an hour's drive) offers fast services to London in around 2 hours.
