Full Details

Overview

A parcel of 69 acres being level to gently sloping productive pastureland suitable for both grazing and cutting extending to approx. 57 acres, with areas of low-lying amenity woodland and newly planted woodland (as part of grant funding scheme) extending to approx. 12 acres, accessed off the B4333 via a concrete and hardcore lane, which is shared with a neighbouring property and further benefits from a further internal track abutting the woodland.

The land is conveniently located on the periphery of the rural village of Hermon, and 4 miles north - west of the village of Cynwyl Elfed and 6 miles south - east of the market town of Newcastle Emlyn.

The land would be of particular interest to local livestock / dairy farmers seeking a convenient block of land with good access, suitable for both grazing and cutting purposes, to supplement their existing holdings.

Description

The land is contained in several easy to manage enclosures being in good agricultural heart benefitting from predominantly stockproof fencing suitable for cattle, accessed off the concrete and hardcore access lane, plus an internal track which abuts the woodland. The land has been improved in recent years being capable of growing excellent crops of grass in conjunction with Vendors livestock farm nearby.
