Occupying an attractive position in the desirable village of Brookhouse, this parcel of approximately one acre (0.4 hectares) offers a rare opportunity to acquire land in a sought-after village location.

Set within the picturesque Lune Valley village of Brookhouse, this highly sought after Lune Valley setting is ideal for a range of markets. The village itself has a range of shops and services on hand, as well as a highly regarded primary school. The location also has the benefit of convenient access to Lancaster, which is approximately 10 minutes' drive away, whereby the M6 motorway can be accessed via Junction 34. The location is also well placed for access to the Lake District and Yorkshire Dales National Parks.

The land comprises a single grassland parcel conveniently positioned between established villages and within easy reach of local amenities and transport connections. The land is a single block of land with stock proof boundaries, a brand new ranch fence has recently been erected.

Offering flexibility, the land is ideally suited to both amenity, agricultural and equestrian uses. The land also lends itself to biodiversity enhancement, conservation projects, recreational use subject to the relevant permissions.

One of the property's key attractions is its strategic location. Positioned between established residential communities in an area where demand for land remains consistently strong, the property may also offer some longer-term strategic or development potential, subject to the necessary planning permissions and statutory consents. Prospective purchasers should make their own enquiries with the Local Planning Authority regarding future planning prospects.

Whether acquired for private use, an investment, or with an eye towards potential future opportunities, this property represents a rare chance to secure a versatile parcel in a highly desirable location.
