Full Details

Overview

A charming traditional residential / equestrian small holding set in a semi-sheltered position with commanding countryside views, extending to 16.88 acres in total.

The homestead benefits from a detached traditional 4-bedroom farmhouse, along with a range of traditional stone and brick outbuildings offering scope for conversion (s.t.p.c), with further modern outbuildings, and grazing land.

Although in need of improvement works, Llwynteg offers an exciting project for the most discerning buyer in an attractive countryside setting.

Location

The property is situated in a rural setting near the popular villages of Llanarthne and Golden Grove, in the heart of the Carmarthenshire countryside. The A48 – M4 Link Road at Cross Hands can be reached within 5 miles to the south, providing excellent road links to the wider county, and the village of the same name provides an excellent range of services and amenities.

The popular market town of Llandeilo also lies within 5 miles and is home to an established range of local and independent stores, boutiques, galleries and well-regarded pubs and eateries. Similarly, the county and market town of Carmarthen lies 11 miles (20 minutes) to the west, offering an extensive range of amenities and services, to include healthcare provisions.

FARMHOUSE

The detached two storey traditional 4-bedroom farmhouse is built of a traditional masonry construction being rendered on the external elevations under a pitched slate roof. The property benefits from uPVC windows and timber doors and rainwater goods throughout.

EXTERNALLY

Grounds & Gardens

The house benefits from established front and side lawn, gardens bordered by a stone wall and established hedgerows, along with several seating areas, and parking / turning area to the rear and side, all overlooking the courtyard and surrounding farmland and countryside views.

This area does have Japanese Knotweed growth however, this is being assessed and a treatment plan will be applied.

OUTBUILDINGS

A range of outbuildings adjoin the farmhouse in a courtyard setting which are ripe for conversion (subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents) to include the following:

Former Hay Loft / Cow House + Loft

Built of traditional stone and brick construction under a pitched slate roof comprising an open storage area, secure workshop with further storage area above, extending to approx. 5.54m x 9.50m (18' 2" x 31' 2") on both floors.

Former Cowshed / Stables
