A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY TO ACQUIRE A RURAL 6 ACRE SMALLHOLDING

A deceptively spacious detached bungalow with up to 3 bedroom accommodation and annexe potential, set in just over 6 acres of attractive gardens, grounds and pastureland situated in a peaceful rural location. The property offers an excellent range of outbuildings, including a 90ft stone barn, stable block with 5 loose boxes and a further timber barn, making this an ideal opportunity for those seeking a smallholding or equestrian lifestyle. The property benefits from a recently installed air source heat pump, solar PV panels and wood burning stove, combining energy-efficient heating with cosy country living.
Conveniently located approximately 2 miles from Cross Inn and within easy reach of Aberaeron and Aberystwyth.
Subject to an Agricultural Occupancy Restriction

Location

The property is well situated in the rural community of Bethania enjoying an attractive location adjoining one other country property and being only 2 miles from the village of Cross Inn with a village shop and public house. Bethania lies approximately 8 miles to the Georgian harbour and market town of Aberaeron renowned for its popular hotels, restaurants and bars together with a good range of local amenities and employment opportunities and being approximately 13 miles equidistance to the larger town of Aberystwyth to the north and Lampeter to the south.

Externally

The property is approached via a hardcore drive to which the neighbouring property has a right of access for the first 30 yards or thereabouts. The land is arranged to provide a combination of grazing and recreational space, with potential for keeping horses and other livestock. The established equestrian facilities, together with the approximately 6 acres, offer considerable appeal to buyers looking for a manageable smallholding with scope for a variety of rural and lifestyle uses.

A particularly attractive feature is the property's combination of established gardens, useful outbuildings, stabling and surrounding countryside, all contributing to its character as a versatile rural holding.

Timber Barn

A useful space in need of some refurbishment.

Stone Barn
90' x 20' (27.43m x 6.10m)

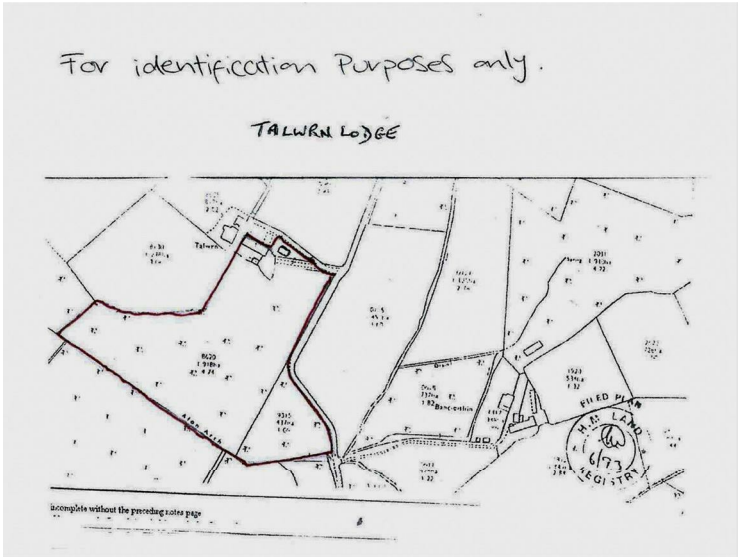

Of stone and slate construction with in our opinion potential for conversion into alternative use (subject to obtaining necessary planning consents).

Stables
12' x 50' (3.66m x 15.24m)

A range of stables divided into 5 loose boxes.

Land

The property benefits from just over 6 acres of pasture land divided into attractive sized paddocks; all level and bordered by a stream being a feature of the property.

Services
The property benefits from connection to mains electricity, private water from borehole, private drainage with air source heat pump and solar PV panels.

Directions
From Aberaeron take the A487 coast road north to Aberarth. Turn right on to the B4577 signed to Tregaron. Go straight on through the villages of Pennant and Cross Inn and through the cross roads in the centre of Bethania itself. At the square turn right and continue down the road for approximately 1.5 miles and the property can be found on the right.
