GLEBE FARM AGRICULTURAL BUILDING AND 0.33 ACRES

Buckerell, Honiton, Devon EX14 3EP

Situation

Glebe Farm occupies an attractive rural position on the edge of the village of Buckerell in East Devon, approximately 2.5 miles west of the market town of Honiton.

Honiton provides a wide range of amenities including shops, supermarkets, cafes, schooling and a mainline railway station with services to London Waterloo. The nearby A30 provides excellent road connections to Exeter and the M5 motorway. The property is surrounded by attractive rolling countryside whilst remaining accessible to local services.

Description

Glebe Farm comprises two agricultural buildings situated on a farmyard with direct road access leading to the centre of the village.

The Agricultural Building

The building to the west of the yard is used for the storage of straw and agricultural machinery and extends to approximately 231 sq m (2,486 sq ft). The building is in reasonable condition with timber cladding and has an asbestos roof covering.

Planning

Prior approval has been granted under Class Q of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 for the conversion of the agricultural buildings to residential use.

Planning Reference: 25/1785/PDQ
